Race Regulations

The race will be run under the Technical Regulations of British Cycling.

Race Numbers

You will be issued with 2 race numbers which must be worn on your lower back, unfolded and unaltered. Numbers must be clearly visible at all times. Where a number cannot be seen the rider concerned may not be placed in the final classification.

Race Communications

All in-race communications will be by UHF radio. Separate channels will be assigned for marshals, organisations and commissaires and will be advised as appropriate.

A convoy radio check will be carried out during the neutralised section.

Rider Briefings

Rider briefings and rollout will be from the HQ car park please see event schedule for briefing times

Feed Zone

The feed zone is just after the finish line. Feeding will not be allowed on the first or last lap and must take place ON THE LEFT. Bottles can only be dropped at the feed zone only.

Littering will not be tolerated. You may be at risk of disqualification and/or a fine.

Sign On

A physical valid 2023 British Cycling license must be presented at sign-on. Your license will be held for the duration of the race and given back on Return of race numbers. Should you withdraw from the race early, you can collect your license from HQ. Rider must also bring their Student cards, these will be checked and returned. All institutions with 3 or more riders must provide a volunteer in accordance with BUCS regulations. This is a National B level event and as such riders must be cat 3 or higher.

Rider Safety

Protection for the riders and convoy is provided by motorcycle marshals (NEG), lead cars and a team of static marshals. Cover is limited to when you are between the first lead car and the final vehicle in the race – usually the First Aid Vehicle. If fall behind the vehicles following the chief commissaire then you will no longer be in the safety cover provided by race officials and the Highway Code applies.
