Selection Criteria

The selection panel will select athletes where there is a clear performance and development rationale to do so. The guiding criterion for selection is as follows:

- The athlete is viewed as having the potential to medal at this competition and/or this is viewed as a significant development opportunity.
- Athletes having a current performance standard in major, grand prix or domestic competition that demonstrates they could be competitive at this competition.
- Athletes having a performance trajectory that suggest they would benefit from the developmental experience of attending this competition.

If athletes have been on injury status during the most recent season, this may be considered by the Selection Panel.

If more athletes are proposed than quota places are available, the Selection Panel has discretion to select the athletes most likely to achieve the best result at the Competition.

Selection & Nomination Panel

The Selection Panel, which is responsible for the implementation of the Policy as outlined in the International Selection and Provision Framework (ISPF), will be chaired by an individual nominated by British Shooting. The Selection Panel will consist of the:

Voting

- BS Performance Director- Currently Steven Seligmann (Chair)
- Representative for Pistol & Rifle on the Performance Group (currently Phil Scanlan)
- Representative for Shotgun on the Performance Group
- Independent Representative (currently Ken Parr Snr)

Non-voting

- BUCS International Manager
- British Shooting Head of Athlete and Coach Pathways
- British Shooting Rifle and Pistol Head Coach

The Selection Panel is therefore composed of 3 voting members, and shall be quorate if 2 members are present, with one being the Chair.

Selections will be made without bias or discrimination, and, as such, any conflicts, real or perceived, must be declared and recorded at the start of the meeting. The existence of a disclosed conflict will not preclude a Selection Panel member, or attendee, from participating in deliberations. Depending on the nature of the conflict a Selection Panel member may have to abstain from voting if a vote is required.
