BAD 7 Team selection and ranking lists

BAD 7.1 Team size

BAD 7.1.1 Teams shall consist of six players, competing as two singles players and two doubles pairs. A player cannot play singles and doubles during the same match.

BAD 7.1.1.1 For Scottish Conference (Tier 1 and below) league fixtures and Scottish Conference Cup fixtures teams shall consist of eight players, comprising of a maximum of four men and four women. Two men and two women will play singles, all four men and four women will play doubles.

BAD 7.1.2 A team unable to field enough players to fulfil at least four rubbers, or six rubbers in the case of Scottish Conference league fixtures and Scottish Conference Cup fixtures, shall concede a walkover, however institutions/Playing Entities with multiple teams should be aware of REG 11.1.3.1.

BAD 7.1.3 A team fielding enough players to fulfil at least four rubbers, or six rubbers in the case of Scottish Conference league fixtures and Scottish Conference Cup fixtures, but not a full team, shall be permitted to play but shall concede the rubbers they are unable to fulfil. In such circumstances it is expected that the team would notify their opposition as soon as possible after it is known that they will not be fielding a full team of this, specifying how many players will be fielded. For the avoidance of doubt, if notice of being short of players is given to the opposition in advance of the fixture, the opposition team is only required to bring enough players to match the adjusted team size and the appropriate number of rubbers shall still be conceded. Teams found to be fielding less than a full team and conceding rubbers for multiple fixtures may face disciplinary action.

BAD 7.2 Ranking lists All institutions/Playing Entities with teams in Premier Tier leagues must submit the names of four players who are unable to play below the first team, no later than the deadline in the BUCS Sport Specific Affiliations Document. Failure to submit this information will result in sanctions being imposed as outlined in the BUCS Sport Specific Affiliations Document and the possibility of further disciplinary action. This ranking information will be available here for ease of reference.

BAD 7.2.1 Players included on the BUCS Badminton ranking list may only play for the first team and not in any lower tiered teams.

BAD 7.2.2 Players not included on the BUCS Badminton ranking list may play in the first team, providing adherence to REG 11.1.

BAD 7.2.3 Teams found to be attempting to manipulate the rankings will face disciplinary action under REG 5.

BAD 8 Scoring system

BAD 8.1 The BWF (Badminton World Federation) Laws of Badminton shall be used including the Rally Point Scoring System, except as stated below:

BAD 8.1.1 Each rubber shall be the best of three games of 21 points except that if the score reaches 20-20 the winner is then the player/pair with two clear points or whose score reaches 30 first.

BAD 8.1.2 Play shall be continuous from the first service until the end of the rubber. There shall be NO intervals when a side reaches 11 points in a game, NOR between the first and second games, NOR between the second and third games.

BAD 8.1.3 Only when the shuttle is not in play, shall a player be permitted to receive advice during a rubber.

BAD 8.2 In the event of a rubber having to be conceded through injury, the points already won by both teams will stand, with the team that did not concede also gaining the points that they would need to win the rubber.

BAD 8.3 The team winning the majority of rubbers shall be the match winner.

BAD 8.4 In the event of a tie on rubbers in a league fixture, the match shall be considered a draw.

BAD 8.5 In the event of a draw in a knockout fixture, the winner shall be determined as follows:

BAD 8.5.1 The team winning the highest number of games. If a tie still results;

BAD 8.5.2 The team with the greatest difference between points won and points lost. If a tie still results;

BAD 8.5.3 The team winning the highest number of games in the 1v1 singles and 1v1 doubles rubbers. If a tie still results;

BAD 8.5.4 The team with the greatest difference between points won and points lost in 1v1 singles and 1v1 doubles rubbers. If a tie still results;

BAD 8.5.5 The BUCS Executive will toss a coin to decide the outcome of a fixture.

BAD 9 Scorecards Institutions/Playing Entities are required to maintain accurate records* of the matches played by their teams in case of a tie on points within a league which requires additional score information to that on BUCS Play. In such circumstances, the BUCS Executive will contact the relevant institutions/Playing Entities for details of all their league matches in order to separate the teams.

* 'Accurate records' are taken to mean precise details of all aspects of the fixture including rubbers, games and points; won and lost.

BAD 10 Incomplete fixtures

BAD 10.1 In the event of a fixture being incomplete with no fault on either side, a result can be taken if six rubbers have been completed. The results shall be taken on all those rubbers that have been completed. If six rubbers have not been completed, then the fixture shall be replayed. The home team for the replay will be determined by coin toss, undertaken by the BUCS Executive.

BAD 10.1.1 In the event of a Scottish Conference (Tier 1 and below) league fixture or a Scottish Conference Cup fixture being incomplete with no fault on either side, a result can be taken if eight rubbers have been completed. The results shall be taken on all those rubbers that have been completed. If eight rubbers have not been completed, then the fixture shall be replayed. The home team for the replay will be determined by coin toss, undertaken by the BUCS Executive.

BAD 10.2 In the event of a fixture being incomplete due to a late start, with a team at fault, their opposition may claim any rubbers not completed or unplayed.

BAD 10.3 In the event of a fixture being incomplete due to an institution/Playing Entity booking insufficient court time, their opposition may claim any rubbers not completed or unplayed.

BAD 11 Shuttlecocks An appropriate number of new, tournament quality feather shuttlecocks of the correct speed must be supplied by the home team for use in all matches.
